She is at her best in "Mrs. Wiggin of the Cobbage Patch" and "Loring Mary."

The Rev. D. P. McGehee, of Lewisburg, was in town last Thursday in the interest of a conference of the members of the Presbyterian church to be held at Huntington the thirtieth of October in the interest of the Home Mission cause. He addressed the missionary section, and it is expected a goodly number will attend the meeting. The annual deaconesses are holding similar meetings and no doubt the interest in home mission work will be greatly stimulated.

Thrift Lesson For Children

While learning their regular lessons, there is one lesson equally important which children ought to learn outside of school.

It is the lesson of thrift.

With the aid of the parents and the Bank this important lesson can be easily inculcated.

A savings account can be started in this strong institution with as small a sum as one dollar.

Give your boy or girl a start and an opportunity by opening a savings account here for him or her as fast. The benefits will not be measured solely in dollars and cents.
